The Knights of Honor are in a flourishing condition, several additions being made at the last meeting. You can get colored linen trimmings at Kortjohn's at 5 ets a yard. Here is the place, too, for your lemon squeezers.

The pic nic of the Methodist Sunday School of our town takes place to-day at Mrs. Andrews. The little folks and old ones too are all in cestacies.

The entertainment at the Engine House on last I hursday night for the benefit of the Lutheran Church proved a success, for which all praise is due to the ladies concerned.

Rev. J. D. A. Brown preached a most excellent sermon on Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church on "Hypocrisy." We wish all the hypocrites had been out to hear it.

Parties in the county who have pigeons for sale would do well to call upon W. G. Albergotti, who wants two or three hundred, for which he will pay good prices. Apply early,

We are pained to learn of the death on last Thursday evening, of an infant child of Mr. Josiah Bran on. The funeral services were performed on Wednesd. Incrning at the Fresbyterian Church.

Mr. F. DeMars has now on hand and will keep all sommer a full supply of ice, while the will sell in any quantity and at prices to sait acrechasers. Also just in pure line juice for making lemounde, &c. It is healthy and nice. Try it.

See notice, in another column, of Mrs. P. A. Chase's dancing school, which opens next Tuesday afternoon at the FairBuilding. Airs, Chase has had considerable experience in teaching this graceful accomplishment in Charleston, and comes with a reputation that warrants success.

Mr. G. A. Neuffer, of our town, has been appointed to a position in the Immigration Bureau at Columbia, with Col. Boykin, who is represented to be a thoroughly experienced business man and eminently qualified for the important work in which he is engaged. We look with great hopes to this Bureau for the their gardens. future building up of our State.

We return thanks to the Committee of Arrangements for an invitation to attend the pic nic at Rowe's Bridge on Saturday, the 14th of May. In the afternoon of the day a match have ever been displayed in the Orgame will be played between "Our Boys," of Rowesville, and the "Fork" Base Ball Club. We know that every effort will be made to make the occasion a succes, and we have no doubt of the result.

The Crangeburg Gun Club have determined to have a glass ball and pigeon match, June 15th, 1881, to which the clubs of the State and County, will be invited. We all can have a splendid time, if the citizens will assist the Club in offering decent prizes, so as to induce clubs to come, A Committee will call on the citizens spond liberally, and we believe they fine stock of merchandise for your-

The hay! the hay! But where will we find it? "It is not the cut I received -but the blank -the blank of, nowhere has he put me." We will now has been sent us for publication: tell where it is to be found. Go to, Capt. Jno. A. Hamilton's and you can get the best and freshest Eastern hay and corn at reasonable rates.

Taft has been confirmed as Pos Master of Charleston, in spite of the resolutions to the contrary. His pe tition was signed by a number of business men of the city and man prominent Democrats. Are the old days of Republico-Democratic rings coming back again?

Among recent specimens of mine rals received at the Agricultural De ment in Columbia, specially noticeable is a mass of iron ore, from Mrs. L. M. Keitt's plantation, in St. Mathews. Competent authority has rivalry between the schools of our pronounced the deposit very valua-1. This may prove a boom for Or-

We are told that the reports in the News and Courier of the glass ball shooting in Charleston does not do justice to the Orangeburg boys. Mr. A. M. Izlar contested with Charleston's "crack shots," and carried off seven sweepstake prizes in succession, and Mr. D. J. Salley µlso took several prizes, of which we hear no mention made in either case. How is this?

An important neeting of the State Board of Education was held in Columbia last week. Important changes in the school law were discussed. The defects in the present plan of apportionment of the school fund were taken into consideration. and the Superintendent was instructed to draft a bill incorporating the necessary changes to be presented at the next session of the legislature.

We were shown by Mr. Gary, at Cornels m's, on Tuesday, the finest stock of la lies neck wear, such as lace starfs, ties, &c., which the ladies ought to stop and examine; also a time lot of it in therehiefs, novelies, &c. I ut the gem of all was the Pearl Shirt," price only $1, for which Mr. Cornelson is agent for Orangeburg. These shirts are very popular being largely sold in Columbia and other cities, and just introinced in Orangeburg.

We highly appreciate the kindly expressions in the communication from the Fork, giving an account of the pic nic at Hayden's Mill. It is pleasant to think that, although alsent, we were not forgotten in the midst of the pleasures and gayeties of the occasion. We regret exceedingly our absence, and we assure our fair correspondent that it was, by no means, from indifference. Saturday being one of the School Commissioner's office days, we felt in duty bound to forego the pleasure of the pic nic.

Since our last report of the Court proceedings, the following cases were disposed of in the manner mentioned;

Wie. Duncan and Lee Keitt, stealing wagon, guil'y: Benjamin, alias Wm. Tyler, Ligamy, guilty; John Ned Bradenburg, stealing a buggy, guilty: Glen Johnson, to gery, acquitied; Celia and Amarintha Me-Dancels, infanticide, not guilty. This elesed the cases on the docket. George Banyon, grand larceny, 6 Benjamin Tyler, 6 months in jail: Ned Brandenburg 12 months in penitentiary; Wm. Duncan and Lee Keitt, 12 months in penitentiary.

We were the happy recipients, on last Friday, of a mess of the finest strawberries we have ever seen in this market, grown in the garden of Capt. Mortimer Glover. They were of the "Wilson's Albany" variety, and a number of them measured nearly four inches in circumference. We are told that this is an orticle that requires very little cultivation or trouble, and that it is well adapted to our soil and climate. It is certain that there is nothing more delicious than a plate of strawberries and cream. When we consider how difficult and almost impossible it is to get strawberries from the Charleston, Augusta and other markets, and how eas ly they are raised at home, we wonder how little attention is paid to their culture by our people, No one should be without them in

We call attention to the change in the advertisement of Mr. Geo. H. Cornelson in this issue. He is opening as large and varied an assortment of Spring and Summer goods as angeburg market. Everything has been selected with care and taste and none who visit this mammoth establishment will fail to be pleased. Mr. Gary, the courteons and efficient chief clerk is managing every thing with that skill and taste for which he is noted. He has made many changes decidedly for the better in the arrangement of the store, and we understand that he still intends to prosecute such improvements as will add greatly to the convenience and comfort of the clerks and customers, and to the general appearance of the establishment. Read the advertisefor subscriptions. They should re- ment and come in and examine this

The presentment of the grand jury for the May term of Court, which was made last week, sets out with certain recommendations for additional furniture for most of the pubile offices. The recommendation for a new fence around the jail, which was never attended to is reiterated. A substantial fence around the Court House, as in Columbia, with posts and chains is recommended. On the subject of the "Sunday Whiskey Traffic," the Jury says: "We are compelled to add our complaint to tho: e that come from other sections State, to the violations of the laws of the upon the subject of selfing intoxicating liquors on the Sabbath day! Notably in Branchville is this a fearful nuisance. This trade, at some of the bar-rooms at this place is larger on the Sabbath than on any day of the week. This is also to a certain extent, the case at some of these places at the Court House. We invoke the aid of the Court and of all peace officers and good citizens generally to suppress this disgraceful traffic, and to remove this repreach upon us as a people.

In reference to bridges and roads, the causeway leading to the river bridge and take bridge near the Court House is recommended to be widened and made higher.

The Exhibition of the excellent school of Miss R. S. Albergotti took place on Wednesday night at Way's Hall to the entire satisfaction and delight of the large authence present. For sale by The stage was beautifully decorated, and, with the richly arranged throne for the queen, the whole scene presented a Lower of beauty. A few minutes before 9 o'clock the proce-sien of children entered the had headed by the teacher and a number of the patrons. The interesting exercises commenced with the "Floral Welcome," rendered by a number of the pupils in a manner which gave a pleasant offsend to the whole affair. so well di tall of the scholars perform that we may do injustice by making any discriminating comments in favor of any part calar performer.

"A Quarrel among the Flowers" was acted by nearly all of the girls with fine effect, the crowning of the with time effect, the erowning of the Queen, Miss Agnes Dibble, who bore her honors with becoming grace and modesty, being greeted with a rhow. Sometimes of the General Assumbly, No. 676, passed becomber 24th medesty, being greeted with a rhow er of bouquets from the audience.

Then came the following single pieces and recitations which reflected credit upon each of the juvenile per formers engaged:

"Mother Dear," by Miss May Postell; "Brudder Sam and I," Miss Ida Zeigler; "The Blind Boy," by Miss Jersie Riggs; "The Captain," by Master Ritchie Postell; "Cheerfulness," an original composition, by Miss Rosa Copes; "I Know and You Know," by Master Walter Riggs; "The Rose," by Miss May Glover: "I'll Never Use Tolmeco," by Master Jimmie Zeigier; "Reverie in Church," by Miss rannie Moseley: *Our Man Nominated," by Miss Nosa Oliveros; "Flowers of Germany," Miss Carrie Williams: "The New Church Organ," by Miss Agnes Dibble; "Shadows on the Wall," by Miss Dena Kohn; "Didn't Understand," by Miss Ida Zeigler; "Beauto" an original composition, by Miss Jessie Riggs; "Mr. Nobody," Miss Agnes Lightfoot; and "Truth in Paren besis," by Miss May Postell. After these recitations, the striking act entitled "The Monument," was well rendered by a number of pupils. The whole affair closed with the "Floral Good-Night." and everybody went home well pleased with the evenings entertain-

The summer days are long and hot, and if you feel tired and overcome with heat, there is nothing that will make you feel better and cool you off quicker than a glass of Dr. Wannamaker's pure, cold soda water with fruit and cream syrups, drawn from the celebrated John Mathews apparatus, at the low price of 5 cents a glass. Also the valuable tonic Peruvian Beer will be drawn fresh from the fountain. Go and be refreshed.

We are shocked at the blunders some of our leading men make, and we are forced to believe that they are made because self-exaltation is a more prominent idea than the general

Executive Chamber, COLUMBIA, S. C., april 22, 1881.
THEREAS is formation has been received at this Department, that in the County of Orangeburg of this State, on the 19th day of March 1881, Miss Jane 'unningham was at: ciously assaulted by a colored person whose name is unknown and that the said person has fled from justice:

Now, therefore, I JOHNSON HA ROOD. Governor of the State of South Carolina, in order that justice may be done, and the majesty of the law vindicated, do hereby offer a reward of Fifty Dol ars for the ap prehension and delivery to the Sheriff of rangeburg County of the said colored

The said person is described as being about 5 feet 6 inches in height, brown complexion, stone built and about 18 years old He was dressed in black pants, a light colored brown coat and a bine check shirt the office will be open each day during the time prescribed by law to take the reface during the struggle. He worked for a Mr. Benj. Crum near Rowesville, S. C. the day before the assault was committed and gave his name as Govan Brown, and said he was from Sumter, S. C. After, in his flight, he gave his name as William Johnson.

In testimony whereof I have here into set my hand and caused the Great Seni of the State to be affixed this 21st day of April 1831, and in the 105th year of the Independence of the United States of
